

Librito de preposiciones

You are going to create a children's book using the verb estar and prepositions. You will create a main character for your book and then describe your character's locations using estar with prepositions. Your book must include:

- A cover page with a colored picture and the author's name
- Five pages that have:
 - a colored picture that shows your character's location
 - a sentence using estar with a preposition that matches your picture
 - different vocabulary words from episodes 1 through 9
- Each of your five sentences needs to use a different preposition- you cannot repeat any prepositions!

Before you create your book, write your five sentences below so that you can double check them before you put them in your book. Make sure your sentences meet all of the requirements above! Use your notes and vocabulary lists to help you.
